Friends' Newsletter 11th May 2016

We hope that you're having a wonderful week so far; just a short but sweet newsletter this week, with a thank you and a reminder for you all that this Friday is "Donations Day" ahead of the May Fayre on Saturday week!

First up we want to offer a huge vote of thanks to our FDPS Secretary Nalini, and all of you in her team who came along to the FDPS Café last Saturday to help serve teas, coffee and cakes to all our visitors! The school was buzzing and the weather was amazing, wouldn't you agree? The perfect day to show how proud we are of our school! We'll be doing it all again in the Autumn ☺

MAY FAYRE DONATION DAYS – FRIDAY 13TH & 20TH MAY

Next we just wanted to remind you of this Friday's Donations Day (remember not a MUFTI day!)

Your donations play a large part in the success of the Fayre.

We hope the whole school will help us by bringing in their non-perishable donations on Friday 13th May (remember its Friday 20th May for food donations) examples overleaf...

PLEASE HELP BY DONATING THE FOLLOWING ITEMS

- Great quality Bric-a-Brac & unwanted Toys (no broken items please)
- Bottles – wine, beer and soft drinks for the raffle and “Copacabana Beachside Bar”
- Old unwanted Crockery for smashing (can also be delivered on the day)
- Sweets for the Sweet Tombola
- Filled Jars
- Books – adults & childrens, for the Book Stall
- Cakes, biscuits and savouries (handmade or shop bought), remembering the School’s “No-nut” policy

Once again, please remember that the donations day is not a Mufti Day 😊 Please bring your donations to the Small Hall at drop off time... thank you so very much for your support

And finally we wanted to let you know that one of our May Fayre external stallholders is Riverford Organics! So if you’re interested to learn more about their organic produce and home delivery services please come along to meet them. Don’t forget you will earn the school valuable donations when you place qualifying orders!
